

Philadelphia, Pa.

DEAR EVANGELIST:—I thought I would tell you of my visit to Washington Co., Maryland.

"I have been there and yet would go.
'Tis like a little heaven below."

I arrived at Hagerstown where I met with a kind reception from Brother J. S. Emmert. Next day I was driven out to Mapleville, where I found a welcome at Welty Fahrney's. He and his good wife know just exactly how to make a stranger feel perfectly at home. I spent the afternoon pleasantly. I preached a number of times at Mapleville. Two young men were converted and our bishop—one dear old brother Andrew Cost baptized them. At Mapleville, I had frequent, pleasant and profitable associations with Elder Peter Newcomer who is a minister in our denomination. He and I divided the services between us on several occasions and I learned much by my associations with him.

I preached several nights at Funktown, where I had a pleasant home at the house of William Welsh. Sister Welsh is a member of the Progressive church.

From Funktown I went to the College of St. James where I preached several sermons. The pastor during my stay there, received a gentleman and lady into the membership of the church. They came forward at the close of the service to give their hands to the church and their hearts to God.

Since returning home I have preached two sermons at the Corner St. Mission in Philadelphia. The first night I preached there, four middle aged persons and two girls of about twelve and fourteen years of age came out on the Lord's side. I also preached there again last night when seven more dedicated themselves to God. The Corner St. Mission is managed by our good brother Atwood and his excellent wife. Only a few months ago one of our deacons at 4th and York—(brother Harry Castel) engaged the little Methodist church on Corner St., and he and brother and sister Atwood opened a mission there. A good work is going on there. They expect to immerse by trine immersion at the Corner St. Mission next week.

"Praise the Lord Oh my soul."

Campbell, Mich.

We held a few meetings here and closed last night. Two persons, man and wife, made the good confession, and some more have promised to come in the near future. So you see the ball is rolling in the newly organized Campbell Brethren church, Mich. We have organized a weekly prayer meeting and all seem to enjoy them very much. I will tell you how we conduct our meetings, 1st, we sing a few hymns, then prayer by the leader, (we select a different person every meeting,) then we read a chapter out of the New Testament, and comment on the same, which is very instructive to all present. All take part in the reading and asking questions, and answering question, etc. Then before we close, we have more singing and another season of prayer. Prayer meetings are a great help to the church, give the members plenty of work to do and there will be no time left to pick flaws in others, and find faults. Experience is the best teacher.

The ark of the Lord is moving on and souls are getting on board. We have made two visits since we took charge of the church at this place, and we are well pleased with the outlook. One united at our first visit and when we returned on our next appointment we found that our young brother, Bro. Wm. Stahl, had not been idle. He had preached during our absence on Sunday night, and had one applicant for baptism. On Sunday after service we gathered at the water side where we initiated Bro. Stahl as a baptist. Although the weather was cold, and the ice very thick, yet we had a beautiful baptismal service. The applicant was a young man of more than usual intelligence, son-in-law of Bro. Jacob Miller. He has graduated as M. D., and is practicing in his profession.

Bro. Stahl will commence meeting on Sunday, the 12th. We expect to join him by Wednesday evening and we will work together for good.

In the hurry to print the covers for the Brethren Annual for this year the last proof was not corrected and the advertisement under the above title contains several errors. A. C. Weaver, should read A. E. Weaver, and Picaway county, instead of Picama co., Ohio. "More's with strainer" should read Milk Strainer. If any of the EVANGELIST readers desire any thing in the line of goods they manufacture, they will do well to correspond with the firm. They are reliable and have excellent instruments. $1.25

It is false, and not true that I have reduced the retail price of my DR. PETERS' REMEDIES. I absolutely refuse to sell to peddlers or allow anyone to peddle the Dr. Peters Remedies when I know it. Hence, peddlers do not love me the more, and oftentimes feel constrained to say naughty things about me and my medicine. My agents are not allowed to sell the DR. PETERS REMEDIES under price, for my prices are very low as compared with the prices of other first class medicines. I alone must be judge in matters pertaining to my own affairs. If you buy blood medicine always look at the printed cost mark on the outside of bottles, and if it is less than $1.25 rest assured that I did not make it. My remedies are made to CURE, not simply to physic.

Nearly thirty years' experience with sick people enables me to know their wants, and it is my aim to supply their demands, regardless of speculators.
